NEWS AND VIEWS...

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Well, our Legislators have done it again. The number one item on their agenda this session was school finance. They got organized early, they got off to a fast start and made sounds of really having a productive 120 days. But when the smoke cleared and time had run out, they did not have a school finance bill.

Now it will be up to the Governor to call a special session if we are to have a school finance bill for the next two years. He is talking about a mid-July date for this session which will really put the state's school boards in a bind trying to budget for the coming year.

Even if the Legislature had come up with a bill in the final days of the regular session it would have made it difficult on the school districts in preparing their budget and mid-July will really have them in a squeeze.

The first thought is why is the Governor going to wait until mid-July to call this session that he knows must be called.

Two reasons for this have been advanced. First, if the governor calls a special session, it opens up the can of worms for 30 days even though the governor can limit the measures to be discussed.

Secondly and probably the main reason, the governor might want to veto some bills after the legislature adjourns, and he wouldn't want them sitting there in session, real handy to over-ride a veto if they so desired.

Who do you blame for this failure of the legislative process? We don't know. Maybe you blame the leadership. But the big problem is that all those people down there have their own ideas of what the answer to school financing is and they just did not come to an agreement within the 120 days.

Although we tend to get nervous when the legislature is in session we still believe that it should meet more often than once every two years. In two years time the state just has more problems than can be solved in 120 days.

President Carter has recommended a further increase in Social Security taxes as a means to solve the never ending dilemma caused by paying out more than is taken into the Social Security system.

Is it possible to bring income and outgo into balance?

Do taxpayers realize how rapidly Social Security taxes have increased just since 1970? The maximum tax withheld from an employee during 1977 will be $965.25 as compared to the 1970 withholding of $374.40.

This represents an increase of 258 per cent, far above the inflation rate for the same period of time.

An astounding example of the inequity of the current program is

The Hamlin area wheat harvest is approaching near record proportions this year as the harvest moves into its final stages. Moore Elevator manager Robert Fowler said Tuesday that the elevator had received 880,000 bushels through Monday. He also said that most wheat producers are saying that this has been the best crop they have ever raised. He said that yields are running from a low of 25 bushels per acre to well over 50.

The hail storm about two weeks ago is apparently the only thing that is keeping this harvest from exceeding all previous records. The top year for Moore Elevator was 1975 when they received 1,178,000 bushels. Last year the harvest brought in 673,000. The previous high was in 1968 when the local elevator received 982,000 bushels.

With pretty weather for harvesting, the only dark cloud for the wheat producers who missed the earlier hail storm is the price. The current price of wheat is $1.88. This compares with as high as $3.55 last year and up around $4.50 the year before.

Most custom combine crews moved out of the Hamlin area over the weekend to meet previous commitments in the Texas and Oklahoma panhandle. This will delay the completion of the harvest as the locally owned combines try to complete the task.

Estimates vary on the completion of the harvest with some saying that it is about 90 percent in and some saying that as much as 20 percent of the crop is still in the fields.

Storage space is of major concern for the elevator as they seem to be running nip and tuck with enough railroad cars to transport the grain elsewhere.

Local Golf Tourney Is This Weekend

Rodger Bell has announced that no other entries can be taken for the Hamlin Country Club Partnership Golf Tournament June 11-12. He also asked that all participants please try to tee off by 2 p.m. Saturday.

For those interested, the barbecue will be Saturday at 7:30 and the tickets will be $2.50 per person at the door.

BECOMES PROBLEM HERE—

Head Lice — They're Getting Into Everyone's Hair

"Head lice — they're getting into everyone's hair these days."

While not literally true, this line from a new State Health Department film, "Head Lice: Questions and Answers," points to a continuing and growing problem in cities and towns throughout Texas, and the nation for that matter.

And apparently Hamlin is no exception, according to Mrs. Erma Wallace, Hamlin School Nurse. And while the close of school eliminates some of the contact between youngsters, at the same time it makes it harder for public health officials to treat and control.

The general public may not hear so much about "pediculosis," an infestation with human lice, for those affected are reluctant to spread this information. And, it is not a reportable disease, thus keeping it from public attention. But school nurses and public health clinic nurses see it from time to time and report it as a problem here at the present time.

The person who does understand a louse problem is the victim. Pediculosis can be a night and day torment with the itching and burning and discomfort which it causes. The constant scratching can produce an infection.

While the presence of lice may be noted by the itching, the first visible signs of infestation may be the nits attached to the hair. Head lice and their nits usually are found in the hair behind the ears and along the nape of the neck. The eggs may be seen in clusters along the hair. However, it's possible that some other foreign substance such as globules of hair spray may be confused with nits. This has happened. Also, some investigators have observed that casts from hair follicles may be found on a hair and that these nodules, which will slip up and down on the hair shaft, are mistaken for nits.

State Health Department authorities emphasize that the temporary presence of head lice isn't necessarily an indication of lack of personal hygiene. An infestation might be acquired by almost anyone.

Head lice may be spread in a number of ways. The spread from individual to individual may be accomplished by using the same comb, scarf or hat, or sleeping in the same bed since lice do come off on these objects. They also may be spread by upholstered head rests of chairs and couches and perhaps less frequently via the head rest of a school bus.

No matter how the head lice are acquired, they may be hard to get rid of. You'd think that swimming or washing your hair would get rid of the lice and nits. However, this isn't the case. They resist water and ordinary soap and water.

Bathing or washing your hair at temperatures you can tolerate won't kill out the head lice. Some may wash off, however, but the nits will stay alive and hatch out.

Killing off head lice may turn into a family affair. If one person has head lice, the entire family needs to be treated at the same time. To rid household articles of lice, clothing, bedding, towels and washcloths should be laundered frequently in hot water. Washable head gear also should be laundered at the same time.

Combs and other hair-styling articles need thorough and frequent cleaning, and the home should receive a thorough vacuuming, including the bathroom.

Personal hygiene, frequent bathing and shampooing of hair are very important in preventing the establishment or re-establishment of lice.

But if you're infested, you'll need a louse-killing insecticide shampoo to rid yourself of them. These are available at drug stores. Your family physician may prescribe one, or you may receive the names of these products from your school nurse or public health clinic. Most drug stores have two or three brands in lotion, cream, gel or shampoo form.

It is important in treatment to follow the directions closely and continue the treatment for the prescribed time. Remember, you're dealing not only with lice but their eggs as well. Dead nits may be removed from the hair with a fine comb following proper treatment, which dissolves the tough cement binding the nit to the hair.

CUT FENCES—Landowners along the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River between Hamlin and Aspermont are being plagued by trespassers and vandalism. Shown here is a fence along the highway where all but one strand of the fence has been cut to get dirt bikes down to the river. One of the landowners said this week that he was going to have to start filing complaints against the youngsters if this practice of fence cutting did not stop.

to live off the annual interest of 6 1/2 per cent and get $28,904.99 per year and never touch the principal. Certainly this is many times greater than the benefits he could expect to receive through Social Security.

There are a number of solutions advanced to help the Social Security system and while there is no general agreement as to solution everybody agrees that something should be done.

If something isn't done, the system will go broke just as a lot of us are preparing to start receiving retirement checks.

REDDY'S HELPFUL TIPS

- ★ Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.
- ★ Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.
- ★ Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

Clayton Completes Soil Testing Program

Kirby Clayton, County Extension Agent in Jones County, has completed special training in soil testing procedures at the Rolling Plains Soil Laboratory in Seymour, according to Ed Garnett, District Extension Agent.

The soil test laboratory, located in the Baylor County Extension Building, has served successfully the Rolling Plains for a number of years, Garnett pointed out.

"With the steady increase in the cost of production inputs for farmers and ranchers in our area, we felt that it was time to take a close look at the most profitable basis for fertilizer purchase and use," Garnett said.

Demonstration studies, some over the past 14 years, dramatically emphasize that using fertilizers based on soil test results has produced the highest net profit per acre on small grains year after year, Garnett said.

Lowell Cure, Baylor County Extension Agent, is in charge of the soils laboratory and translates the test results into fertility recommendations.

Joyce Green serves as soil laboratory technician.

Cost of a soil test from the laboratory is $2 and results and recommendations are returned in less than two weeks, Cure said.

The laboratory has recently added the latest in soil testing equipment and offers analyses for nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, calcium, sodium, and a pH level.

Soil test containers, and mailing instructions may be picked up at any local county agricultural Extension agent office.

The horse placed fourth in his first outing in Midland a month before the Graham race.

Local Youth To Attend Camp Hoblitzelle

Three boys from Hamlin will be given a free, one-week vacation this summer at The Salvation Army's Camp Hoblitzelle near Dallas, according to Erma Wallace, The Salvation Army Service Unit Camp Chairman.

Boys chosen to attend the camp this summer are Kevin Willis, Craig Willis and Johnny Flores. They will leave for camp Sunday.

"This will be an excellent experience for these boys who have never been to a real camp," Mrs. Wallace said. "At Camp Hoblitzelle, they will enjoy boating, hiking, archery, horseback riding, fishing, swimming, handicrafts, movies and baseball as well as worship services and Bible study."

All organized activities are supervised by coaches and counselors. The campers are housed in brick and redwood cabins and receive well-balanced meals in the camp dining hall.

"Each boy's trip was financed by the Hamlin Service Unit Committee with donations from private citizens in our community," Mrs. Wallace said.

McCauley Woman Named Girl's Rodeo Assn. Rep.

Diltzie Edmondson of McCauley has been appointed a spokeswoman in the Girls' Rodeo Association by Jeana Day Felts, director of the organization's Texoma region.

The local woman will work with judges and represent members in all GRA rodeo events that might take place in Texas and Oklahoma.

The association, headquartered in Spencer, Okla., has more than 600 members, with another 1500 contesting on a permit basis, not yet having qualified for full membership. The association was organized in 1948 for the mutual protection and benefit of female professional rodeo contestants.

Ms. Edmondson became a GRA member in 1968. From a rodeo family, she competes in all events.

Philosopher Comes Up With A Plan to Get the Whole Country Out of Debt In No Time

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One thinks he has discovered a way to get the country out of debt.

Dear editor: There's an argument going on in Congress on whether mail delivery on Saturdays should be eliminated. The Postal Service says it could save $400 million a year by eliminating Saturday deliveries. A prominent Senator favors it, asking "Why do we need six-day delivery? Mail I get on Saturday could very well wait until Monday."

This opens up some far-ranging possibilities. If you can wait till Monday to get Saturday's mail, why can't you wait till Tuesday, or Wednesday, or Thursday? Or one day next week? Or next month? If the Postal Service can save 400 million dollars by eliminating Saturday delivery, it could save six times that, or $2,400,000,000 by eliminating the whole week. This would sure throw a kink in mail service, but there are some who claim it wouldn't be noticed. By eliminating all mail delivery, the Postal Service could thus save about two and a half billion dollars a year. That's just a start in a national economy drive. For example, it now costs about a billion dollars a year to operate Congress. You get the drift. Or take the courts. The court system in this country has never shown a profit. Neither has the highway system. I don't know of a single public school that's done it. Raising kids is one of the least profitable businesses there is. Show me a penitentiary that's paying its way. Everybody knows that big cities are one of the worst investments a mass of people can make. You ever hear of a weather bureau showing a profit? A public park? Without generous tax support, how many county governments could stay in business? Or state governments?

By eliminating Saturday mail delivery and setting the domino theory of economy in action, this country could get out of debt in no time. Yours faithfully, J.A. Debbie Hargrove, Area IV Future Homemaker fourth vice president, Julie Jeffrey, Hamlin Chapter FHA president, and their advisor attended the FHA Executive
